

Mr Furuhashi Curriculum Vitae

Biographical Information	1972: Join ChuSanRen, Nagoya, Japan, as management consultant. Current: Principal, ChuSanRen Institute of Management Professional areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Transforming business processes by “Flow Concept” in manufacturing industry, i.e. production preparation, production, delivery, supply system, etc. 2) Transforming organisational and management system to meet new environment. 3) Diffuse tools and technique, which is developed in manufacturing industry, to other sectors, such as service industry
Professional Experiences	1980s-now: Consultation to industry (Japan, Asia, Europe, etc.) 1995-now: Best Practice Workshop (BPW) in South Africa 2007-now: VLFM programme in India
Special project in India	VSME (Visionary Small & Medium Enterprise) Programme <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Organising Customer (OEM or Tier 1) and Suppliers (Tier 1 or Tier 2) in automotive industry, for working together for 1 year as a team, to transform both operation systems for creating new relationship of Win-Win. 2) This programme was started in 2010, and had been conducted 5 batches by 2014, with participation of total 170 organisations from Tier 1: 40 & Tier 2: 130. 3) In 2015, this programme is organised focusing TATA Motors: 5 Plants of commercial Vehicle Business, with 7 Vehicle assembly lines, 17 Internal Tier 1 lines, and 33 model suppliers of external Tier 1.